

ADKC Access Group

Action Disability Kensington & Chelsea (ADKC) is an organisation run by local disabled people.

They support disabled people to live independently and campaign for everyone to be included.

ADKC set up their Access group over 10 years ago.

ADKC help local organisations to make themselves more accessible to disabled people.

They have worked with staff from many organisations including: transport, planning, housing, police and fire services.

ADKC gets involved in campaigns that help disabled people.
