

Wouldn't Change a Thing

Wouldn't Change a Thing was started by Tania Charlton.

Wouldn't Change a Thing is changing what people think about people with Down's Syndrome around the world.

It started with a little video online which had 500 million views. It was called '50 Mums | 50 Kids | 1 Extra Chromosome'.

The video made such a difference to the way people think about Down's Syndrome that the people involved decided to set up an organisation.
