Disability Power 100

Impact Publishing Ltd produces a popular magazine for disabled people called Able Magazine.

The magazine shares news about disabled people and disability issues.

Articles in Able Magazine are often written by disabled people, and Impact Publishing Ltd hires disabled people across the company.

Impact Publishing Ltd have also helped organisations create information for disabled people, like:

- Writing and creating information for the Special Olympics disabled sports players.

- Creating an information leaflet for Fiat Chrysler who have made cars for disabled people.
