

Sam Tatlow

Sam Tatlow works for ITV. She helps to make ITV more inclusive.

Inclusive means everyone is involved.

Sam also works with other television companies to make television in general more inclusive.

To achieve this Sam has:

- led training and events for disabled people
- become a member of groups who work to make film and television inclusive

- focused on accessibility for disabled people.

Accessibility is about being easy to use and suitable for people with different needs.
