

Sarah Rennie

Sarah campaigns and advises organisations about accessible transport.

She helped in improving 2 train companies' accessibility.

She has trained over 4,800 staff and managers in improving services for disabled customers.

Sarah is:

- on Transport for London's Independent Disability Advisory Panel

- Chair of the Accessibility Advisory Forum for the Commonwealth Games in Birmingham 2022

- Vice Chair of Access Birmingham.

Due to the deaths of many disabled people at Greenfield Tower, Sarah set up an organisation called Claddag to help disabled people who live in blocks of flats.
